Service Description:

Each week we work with thousands of young people, many of whom have no other connection with the Church. Above all, we seek to make a positive contribution to the lives of young people through the programme of activities that we offer. Our programmes are balanced to provide every child and young person opportunities to take part in a wide range of activities, learn new skills and develop existing skills. Above all The Boys' Brigade is fun, exciting and safe.

If you are interested in joining, please call and we can provide you with more details including where your nearest group is located, you can also complete the online enquiry form or refer to the Company Finder (via the website).
