

Self harm

1. Current Picture¹

Hospital admissions for self harm DSR/100,000 population aged 15+, persons nos
Solihull	197	406
England	203.2

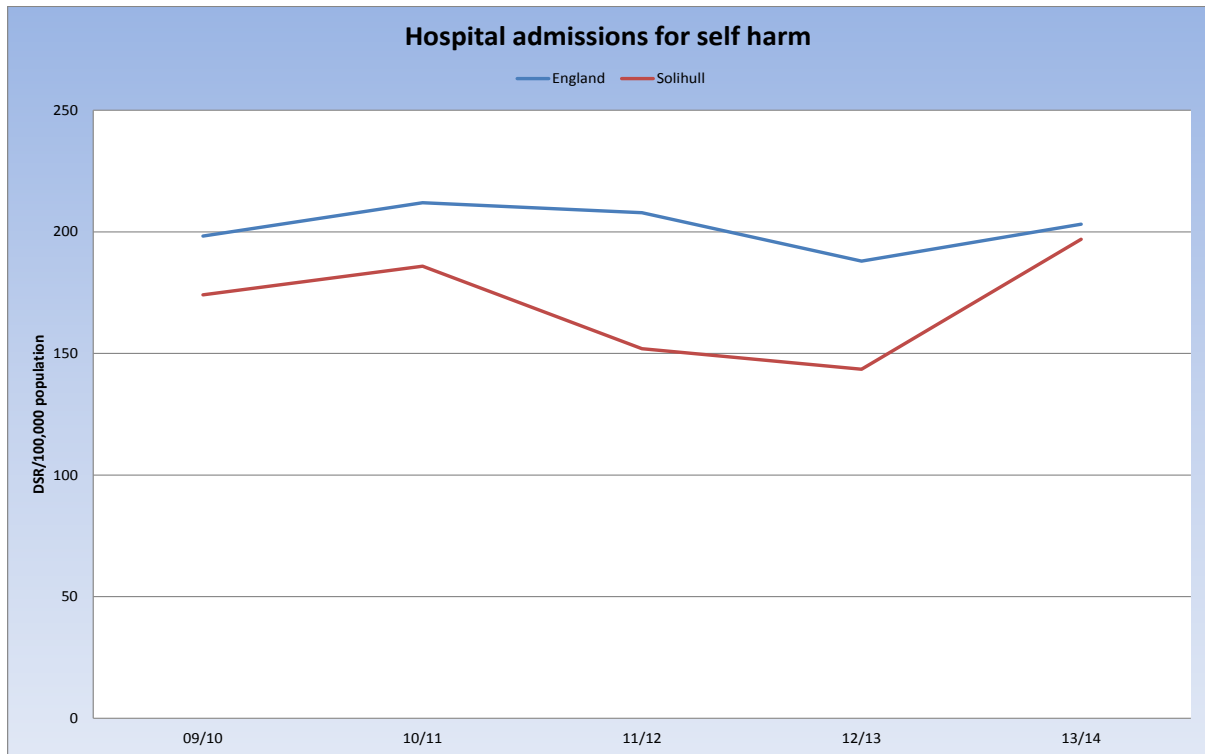

Headlines

- Rate of hospital admissions in Solihull has increased in the last 12 months and is now similar to the England rate
- Solihull is in the mid range of its comparator group for self harm hospital admissions. In 12-13 it was significantly lower
- Females more likely to be admitted than males
- Younger people more likely to be admitted (partic. 15-24 year olds)
- Patients more likely to be admitted from regeneration area
- Some patients may be admitted for self harm more than once in a year
- Admissions more likely to be for poisoning than physical harm (93% to 7%)

2. Definitions²

Hospital admissions for self harm: Hospital admissions with a diagnosis including ICD10 codes X60- X84 (99% are emergency admissions)

3. Historical trend³

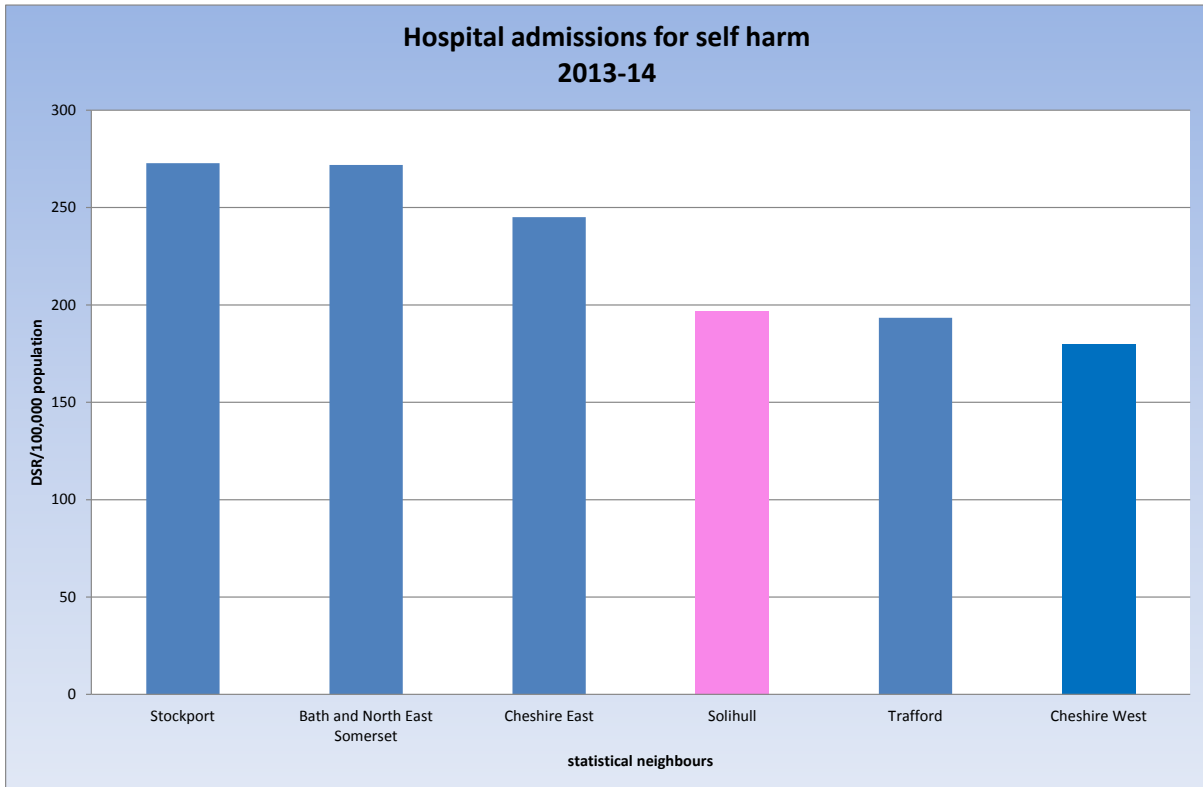

¹ LA Health profiles, PHE

² As above

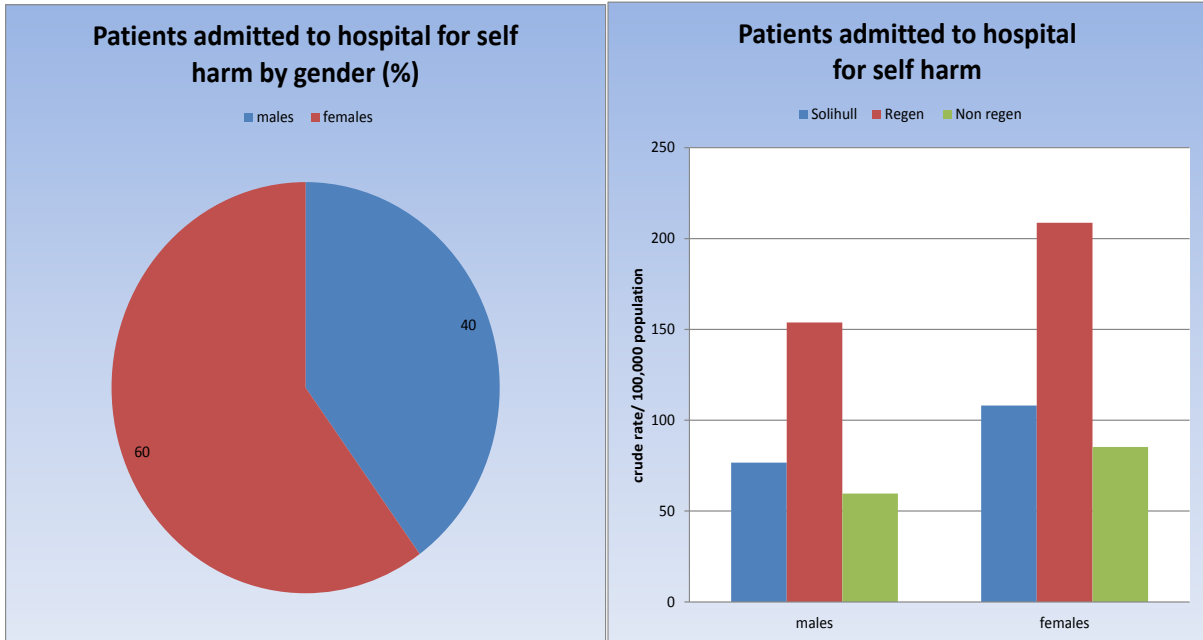

³ As above

Self harm

4. Statistical peers⁴

5. Local picture⁵

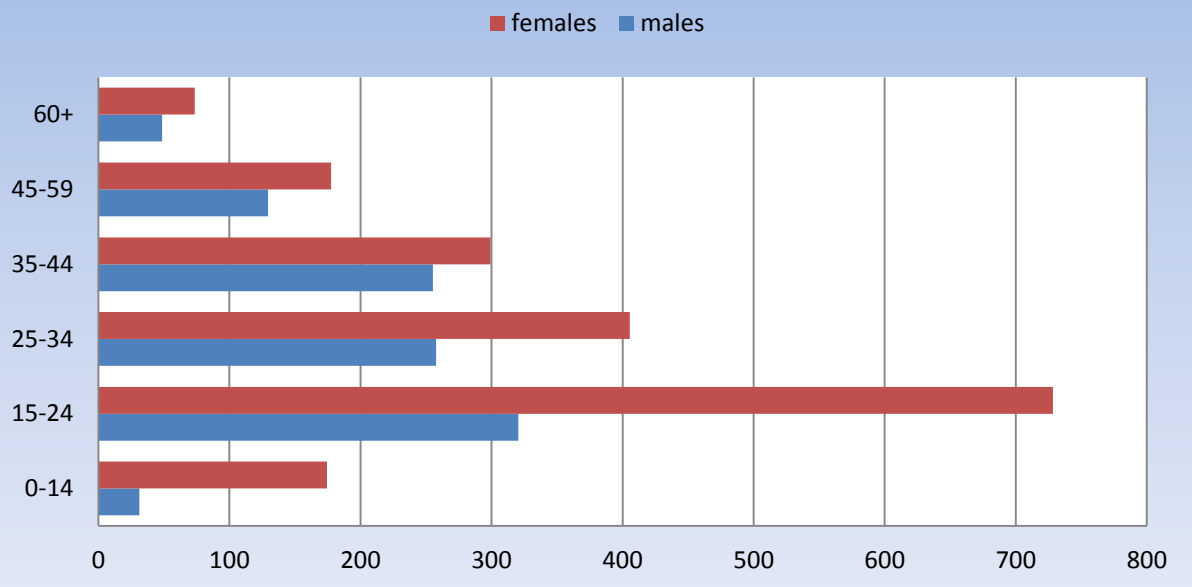

⁴ As 1

⁵ SUS data from CSU, ONS mid year population estimates

Self harm

Hospital admissions for self harm by gender and age band

By ward and gender

Hospital admissions for self harm 2013-14 by ward and gender

