Poetry on Demand Online

Solihull Libraries have teamed up with Poetry on Loan to bring you Poetry on Demand Online! Each Poem is uniquely personalised and the service is free.

Would you like a Poem to give to someone special? Or maybe you'd like one for yourself?

If so, then read on.

The following Poets are available:

Brenda Read-Brown, Jonny Fluffypunk, Emma Purshouse , Fergus McGonigal, Steve Pottinger

Firstly select either:

- a poet from the list above

or

- a lucky dip poet

Next please answer these questions:

- Who is the poem for?
- Is it a special occasion, and if so what is the occasion? Have you got anything planned?
- What is the person's name?
- Where did you meet? If it's a partner, tell us about your first date.
- What is most important to him/ her?
- What are his / her hobbies, interests, favourite food, usual clothes, pets?
- What makes this person special?
- Why do you want a poem for him/ her?
- Tell us anything that's funny about this person.
- If you could give this person anything in the world, what would you give them?
- If I had to spot this person in a crowded room how would I know it was them?
- What did you think of them when you first ever met them? Was that first impression right?
- Is there something special you like to do together or somewhere you like to go?

Do you want the overall tone to be light or more serious?

Tell us anything else that might help in creating your poem... anything!

Finally email us with the subject heading Poetry on Demand Online to libraryarts@solihull.gov.uk

We will then pass on your request and once we receive your poem we will send direct to your inbox.
